

~ HERITAGE WEBINAR ~

Co-hosted by Moms for America

When the Kids Come Home

Surviving COVID-19 with a Houseful of Children

Featuring

Amy Anderson, DNP, RN

Co-founder, Global Nurse Consultants Alliance and Assistant Professor, Schools of Nursing and Medicine, Texas
Christian University

James Carafano, Ph.D.

Vice President, Kathryn and Shelby Cullom Davis Institute for International Studies, The Heritage Foundation

Lindsey Burke, Ph.D.

Director, Center for Education Policy, The Heritage Foundation

Moderated by

Katie Gorka

Director, Center for Civil Society,
The Edwin J. Feulner Institute, The Heritage Foundation

Join us for a virtual conversation with healthcare, national security and education experts to learn what makes the coronavirus different from the flu, steps you can take to ensure the health and safety of your children, steps being taken by the government in partnership with private industry to ameliorate the impact of this pandemic on the nation, and information on education curriculum and content resources to help families with their children's education during the coronavirus pandemic.

Thursday, April 2, 2020 – 3:30 PM to 4:15 PM Eastern

Click Here to RSVP

RSVP online at heritage.org/events
Terms and conditions of attendance
Media inquiries, call (202) 675-1761